

MY HUMBLE HOUSE

poetry in dining

My Humble House at The Esplanade, Theatres on the Bay, is a dream location for wedding celebrations. Chic, elegant, yet comfortable and personal, My Humble House serves as an artistic restaurant under the renowned Tung Lok Group of restaurants, elevating 'the art of dining' beyond the realm of the exceptional.

In April 2009, My Humble House was named the Luzerne Asian Restaurant of the Year at the World Gourmet Summit Awards of Excellence 2009. Celebrated Director of Kitchens, Sam Leong, who leads the team of chefs, was awarded the title of Asian Cuisine Chef of the Year and was also inducted into the World Gourmet Summit Hall of Fame.

My Humble House offers a choice of a Theme Concept and traditional Chinese Sit-Down menus. Contemporary Chinese cuisine combines the private recipes of Tung Lok's creative team of chefs and an exceptional style of artistic presentation. The chefs take their creative skills to the sky, combining the best ingredients with traditional yet innovative cooking methods. The taste remains distinctively Chinese, while the look is refreshingly modern. Names of dishes read like poems, such as The Passion that Lasts, Knows No Bounds and A Duet, For Love, For Life.

Privileges for wedding packages include a pre-dinner reception, personalised wedding favours, champagne fountain with complimentary bottle of champagne, and even a dinner for two to celebrate your 1st wedding anniversary.

Under such a renowned group, tasteful setting, and world-class cuisine, celebrating your union at My Humble House will be a decision well made. bb
